6TH GRADE SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT

During the seventy-two days of summer break, rising sixth grade students will read one (1) book of their choice from the 6th grade reading list. Students will take an AR quiz the first full week of school; additionally, students will produce a written response as described below. The AR component will count toward their first quarter point requirements; the written component of the assessment will count as a quiz grade. Please submit the written portion of the assessment to your language arts teacher Monday, August 10, 2015.

Instructions:
1. Read the book of your choosing from the 6TH grade book list.
2. Divide your novel into four (4) equal sections. Choose one passage from each 1/4 section of your novel, quote it, and write a commentary on that passage.
   A. Write the number of pages in your novel here________.
   B. Divide your novel into four (4) equal sections and write a response for every section. (E.g.: 240 pages ... 240/4= 60. This example shows you should write a response every 60 pages.)

Each commentary should be no less than 50 words in length. You should have a total of four entries.

Steps:
1. Find a meaningful excerpt in each section.
2. Copy the quote from the novel. Write the page number.
3. Give your personal response to the passage and label the type of response you've chosen (a-n). Use the following examples:
   a. This passage is important because...
   b. This passage reveals the character's...
   c. This passage fits with the book as a whole since...
   d. Christians can relate to this quote because...
   e. This excerpt makes me angry/sympathetic/confused because...
   f. This character reminds me of...
   g. This character exhibits the quality of courage (honesty, etc.) ...
   h. The point the author wants to make here is...
   i. I have felt the same emotions as this character when...
   j. The author uses the literary device of (imagery, symbolism, etc.)...
   k. This setting is significant because...
   l. I agree/disagree with this character’s decision because...
   m. This is exciting /boring because...
   n. The author does a good/bad job of...
4. Create a cover page with your name, the book’s title, the book’s author, and the book’s page count.

Example:
Passage 1
“Fire swamps are, of course, entirely misnamed... Simply, there are swamps which contain a large percentage of sulfur and other gas bubbles that burst continually into flame. They are covered with lush giant trees that shadow the ground, making the flame bursts particularly dramatic. Because they are dark, they are almost always quite moist, thereby attracting the standard insect and alligator community that prefers a moist climate” (199).

Response:
The author uses imagery in this passage as he describes the fire swamps. The writing is so powerful that I could see in my mind a huge, dark swamp like something out of a fairy tale, only with jets of flames popping up. The author does a great job of describing the swamps and why they were such a terror to Florin and Guilder. (64 words)

Rubric Score _____ (-1 pt for each grammar/spelling mistake) = Final Grade: ___________
During the seventy-two days of summer break, rising eighth grade students will read one (1) book of their choice from the 8th grade reading list. Students will take an AR quiz the first full week of school; additionally, students will produce a written response as described below. The AR component will count toward their first quarter point requirements; the written component of the assessment will count as a quiz grade. Please submit the written portion of the assessment Monday, August 10, 2015.

Antagonist: In a story, an antagonist is a force working against the protagonist, or main character; an antagonist can be another character, society, a force of nature, or even a force within the main character. In Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry, an example of an antagonist is Mr. Granger. The Wallace family is also an antagonist. Lastly, racism is an antagonist.

Protagonist: In a story, the protagonist is the central character or hero in a narrative or a drama, usually the one with whom the audience tends to identify. Cassie Logan is the protagonist in Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry.

Motivation: A character’s motivation is the reason why he or she acts, feels, or thinks in a certain way. In Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry, Cassie’s motivation for refusing to use the textbook provided for her by the school is to make a statement of her belief that racial slurs are morally wrong. Also, Stacy chases T.J. out of the classroom because T.J. allowed Stacy to take the blame and punishment for T.J.’s cheating.

Think about the protagonist and antagonist(s) in your summer reading book. What actions/words/thoughts allow you to draw that conclusion? Write two examples about the actions/words/thoughts of the protagonist and two examples of the antagonist(s) in your book. Each example should be 3-5 sentences in length and include the character’s motivation for acting the way he/she does (if your antagonist is a character rather than a force of nature). If the antagonist in your book is a force of nature, choose another character and identify five actions, whether positive or negative, and explain his/her motivation for each action.

Example paragraph:

In Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry, racism is an antagonist. One event that supports racism as an antagonist is when the school bus driver of the white students’ school bus sprays mud all over Cassie and her brothers on the road the first day of school. Cassie and her brothers’ clothes are ruined. As the bus driver pulls away, the white students laugh and yell racial slurs. The reader understands the motivation of the driver is purely for entertainment at the expense of the Logan children. The act is unnecessary and hateful. Racism is definitely a protagonist in the story.
